

Celebrated Founder Martine Dubin Donates Extensive Collection of Original Media Content to CORE Foundation

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Washington DC | July 2023 - In a significant contribution to public access of media, Martine Dubin, renowned founder of CORE Foundation, has generously donated a substantial collection of original media content to the CORE Foundation. This is a historic donation, comprising over 500 titles of rare and significant interviews, groundbreaking media productions that span over a decade and a half.

The donation marks the first contribution of media artifacts received by the CORE Foundation. Martine Dubin hopes to lead by example and inspire other content owners to follow in her footsteps, making valuable knowledge available to the public worldwide through CORE.

The Board of Directors of CORE Foundation, including SFA Design's Naomi Firestone, Phillip Caputo - a veteran in building high profile nonprofit organizations globally, and Scott Brandon - the Executive Director of Lincoln Center Institute from 1987-2012, expressed gratitude for the donation, stating;

This generous gift from Martine Dubin is not just a treasure trove of media, it is a catalyst for education and insight. It offers unparalleled access to researchers and the public, helping to foster a deeper understanding of media's role in shaping societal perspectives.

The collection will be available for free public access across CORE's streaming network online, Amazon Prime, and the CORE Apps on iOS, Google Play Store, tvOS, Roku.
